Horse Show Makes Debut Here Saturday

Canyon's first western-type show Saturday will be unveiled at the West Texas State College Rodeo Arena.

Billed as the First Annual Quarterhorse Show, the event is being sponsored by the Canyon Junior Chamber of Commerce. John Carlile is show manager.

The show gets underway at 9 a.m. Saturday at the arena, and will last through the day and probably into the night, Carlile said.

Show Features

Featured will be complete halter classes, reining contest, and cutting horse contest.

The cutting horse contest is expected to be the top draw at the one-day affair. The contest will begin Saturday afternoon and will probably last until that evening, the show manager said.

In each of the scheduled events, a junior and senior division has been set up.

George to Judge

Gene George, quarterhorse breeder from Amarillo, will judge the quarterhorse events. George is the former owner of Senor George, a quarterhorse sold recently by him for $13,000.

There will be no admission charge Carlile said, and the public is invited to attend.

A concession stand for the hungry and thirsty will be in operation throughout the day at the arena. The Jaycees will operate the stand.

Andy Walsh, 65, Buried Monday

Last rites were conducted Monday at 4 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Canyon for Andrew Lee "Andy" Walsh, 65, who died Friday in Las Vegas, Nev.

Dr. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated at the service. Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery under the direction of Warren-LaGrone Funeral Home.

Walsh had been hospitalized in a Las Vegas hospital since July 13, when he was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage while returning from a vacation in California.

A former mayor of Canyon, he had retired recently as the Phillips wholesale distributor here. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, American Legion, and Lions Club. He had served as commander of American Legion Post No. 97 twice in past years.

Masonic and American Legion graveside rites were conducted.

Survivors include the wife, Hazel, and a son, Dr. Andrew Walsh, Jr., of Levelland.

Pall bearers were T. H. Brasher, Hugh Currie, Henry Cone, R. B. Davis, Charlie Donnell, and Clay Cooper.

Price Props Get Vote of Farmers

Randall County farmers Thursday again voted overwhelmingly in favor of price supports for the 1960 wheat crop.

Doyle Thomas, secretary of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reported that 315 voters turned out to approve the price support program by a margin of 263 to 52.

This is better than a five to one margin, while the rest of the nation's wheat farmers voted four to one in favor of the price props.

Vote By Boxes

In Canyon, the vote was 62 for to 16 against; Sunny Hill-Fairview Community, 26 to 4; Jowell, 43 to 2; Umbarger, 34 to 20; Highland, 20 to 7; Trigg-Zita, 41 to 2, and Stone, 37 to 1.

Basically, the vote means that wheat farmers will have the same controls and quotas as they have had for the past five years. Rejected by the farmers was unrestricted planting and sharply reduced price supports.

What They Get

The price support farmers will receive next year is 75 percent of parity, or not less than $1.77 per bushel.

If farmers had rejected the controls, they would have received price supports of only 50 percent of parity, or about $1.18 per bushel.

Randall County's allotment for 1960 is 134,645 acres.

It's Chilling, Man, A Really Big Icer

It's gonna be cool, man, really cool at the Randall County Public Library from now on.

Reason: County commissioners agreed at their meeting Monday to donate an air conditioner to the library.

In other action, the commissioners cooled a tax deputy's request for a salary increase. Commissioner B. E. McCormick made available a statement of policy "adopted a couple of months ago," which icedly stated that "salary adjustments shall be in writing and presented to the Commissioners' Court not later than December 1." The commissioners then have until the first of the year to grant or deny the request.

Dedication of Carillon Slated Sunday at Dreamland Cemetery

Dedication ceremonies will be held Sunday at 5 p.m. at Dreamland Cemetery for the "MagneBell" instrument donated to the cemetery association by Mrs. E. D. Harrell, in memory of her husband.

Rev. Don Price, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Canyon, will conduct a short dedication service at the recently-completed cemetery chapel, which houses the carillon.

The public is invited to attend the dedication ceremony and to hear the carillon.

Playing Hours

The "MagneBell" will play every 30 minutes from 4 to 8 p.m. during weekdays. On Sunday, the carillon will begin playing at 2 p.m.

At funerals, the instrument will be played continually, Jerry LaGrone, cemetery manager, said.

The "MagneBell," which is equivalent to six and one-half tons of cast bells, is automatically controlled through the use of a 24-hour programmed clock, which can be set at 15 minute intervals. The instrument also can be operated semi-automatically and manually.

A "Call-to-Service" bell is a part of the instrument, and can be tolled manually.

Gift to Cemetery

"MagneBell" is a gift from Mrs. Harrell to the Dreamland Cemetery Association, a non-profit corporation organized for the improvement of the cemetery. Officers of the corporation are Mrs. L. L. Byars, president; Dr. Ford Fronabarger, vice-president; R. B. Allen, secretary; Levi Cole, treasurer, and A. W. Lair, counselor.

"The management feels that this is one of the nicest improvements to the cemetery since the perpetual care program was started," LaGrone said. "We feel it will be a great comfort to the people who have loved ones in the cemetery and are visiting them."

The "MagneBell" instrument was developed by Schulmerich Carillons, Inc., of Sellersville, Pa.

Tommy Higgins didn't make it to first base this trip, but he did get one of the Canyon Little League All Stars' two hits in the game Friday with Dumas. The Dumas first baseman already has the ball in the Picture. Dumas downed the Little Leaguers, 3-0, to elimniate the Canyon youths from the district tourney.

Long's Four Hitter Not Enough As Dumas Wallops Canyon, 3-0

Bill Long hurled a four hitter for the Canyon All Stars Friday night, but a streak of wildness and miscues by his teammates in the second and third innings cost him the game as the Dumas All Stars downed Canyon, 3-0, in the Little League district tournament at Borger.

Dumas collected two of its runs in the second inning off two walks, a single and an error. Long had walked two men when Jimmie McGill of Dumas singled, driving in a run. The second run was scored on the throwing error.

The All Stars of Dumas pushed across another run in the third after another single and an error by the Canyon All Stars.

Allowed 2 Hits

Vernon Stafford, Dumas' pitcher allowed only two hits, no walks, and struck out 11 of the 20 Canyon All Stars to face him. Stafford had three of the Dumas hits, driving in one run.

Both of Canyon's hits came in the fourth inning, when Tommy Higgins and Ronnie Sweet slapped singles. It was Canyon's only threat of the game.

Stafford began the game by striking out the first three men to face him in the top of the first. After the first inning, he fanned two men in the second, one in the third, two in the fourth, two in the fifth, and one in the sixth.

Miscues Hurt

Canyon committed five errors during the game, one in each frame they faced the Dumas squad. Dumas did not bat the last of the sixth. In addition, Long threw a wild pitch in the third frame.

Long pitched good ball, except for the control trouble he had in the second and third innings. Only one of the Dumas runs was earned.

Playing for the Canyon All Stars in the Friday afternoon tilt were Long, Higgins, Sweet, Richard Merchant, James Jennings, Jim Callarman, Dennis Haley, Bruce Winn, Clifford Sherrod, Tom Lair, Jim Cabe, Don Howard, Alex Martinez, Lonnie Neil, Don Gough, and Jody Sheets.

The loss to Dumas eliminated Canyon from the tournament, and ended the Little League season.

Four Merchants Get Bad Checks

A rash of bogus checks, passed to local merchants last week by two women is under investigation this week by the Randall County Sheriff's Department.

Sheriff L. S. Johnston said two women passed checks last week to four downtown Canyon merchants that were stolen July 19 at Plainview. Also stolen in the Plainview burglary was a check protector.

Tax on Farm Improvements Planned by School District

Improvements to farms this year will be taxed for the first time by the Canyon Independent School District as the district attempts to upgrade taxes to meet the additional debt incurred by the $1 million bond issue to finance the new high school.

A hearing has been set for Monday by the district's Board of Equalization for the approximately 650 property owners affected by the new policy.

A spokesman for the equalization board said it "wasn't the purpose to put an overall general raise on valuations."

Place Just Value

He said it was the board's purpose to put a just value on the farm improvements and to equalize the values of land in the farming areas.

He indicated that in past years the school has, in some cases, increased the value of land because of the improvements to the land.

Included in the improvements taken into consideration by the Board of Equalization were homes, barns, granaries, and other substantial improvements.

"Most of the farmers who have made enough money to build themselves a nice home are smart enough to realize that it takes a great deal of money to build a nice school building," the spokesman explained. "That's why we don't anticipate too many protests to this new tax."

The school district this year will need over $55,000 more to service its bonded debt requirements than it did last year. Last year, the amount needed was $47,340, while $103,606 is required this year for building improvements.

This year's proposed valuation within the school district is $19,890,000, Lee Foster, school tax assessor-collector, said. This is nearly one and three-quarters of a million increase over last year's $18,145,000.

"The tax rate for 1959 is to be set by the school board after adjustments have been made by the Board of Equalization," Foster said. Last year's rate was $1.50 per $100 valuation.

Raise Evaluation

Most members of the board, however, would rather raise the evaluation than the rate, because once a certain rate is set it is often difficult to lower it.

Used by the Board of Equalization to place values on property was an engineering survey made for the county a few years ago. The board used 40 percent of 45 percent of the value then placed on the property.

Under this arrangement, the spokesman explained, a $10,000 piece of property would be valued at $1,800 or 40 percent of $4,500.

The five-man Board of Equalization met three days and nights last week in attempting to equalize the taxes within the district. On the board were Ed Reynolds, Marion Bruce, Roy Byrd, Sr., Hosea Foster, and A. B. Holt.

Tournament Loss Dealt Leaguers

After leading for four innings, the Canyon Babe Ruth League All Stars dropped their game, 19-12, to the Plainview All Stars Tuesday night at the district tournament in Levelland.

Albert Keller pitched well for four innings before weakening. He sagged along with the infield in allowing Plainview runs.

The 13-year-olds in the Babe Ruth League square off for a best two-out-of-three series starting Saturday, featuring the 13-year-olds of the White Sox and Pirates versus the 13-year-olds of the Giants and Cardinals. Thirteen is the youngest age a boy can play Babe Ruth League ball.

The second of the tilts is slated Monday, and if a third game is necessary, it will be played Tuesday. The games will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Boys playing the special games are Don Hawkins, Marion Hicks, Bill Jarnagin, Eddie Poole, Stanley Prichard, and John Stritzel of

School to Open Bids Tomorrow

Bids for the construction of Canyon's new high school will be opened tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Superintendent Joe Gibson's office in the present high school.

Plans and specifications of the new educational building were approved by the school board June 30.

As visualized by architects Townes and Townes of Amarillo, the same firm which drew the plans for the elementary school, the school will be built in four units.

Unit Construction

Unit A will have classroom and administrative offices, Unit B will house the auditorium and cafeteria, Unit C will have the physical education department, and Unit D will include the vocational agriculture and shop areas.

Total area of the new school will cover approximately 88,000 square feet.

The school will be located four blocks south and one block east of the present high school site on a tract acquired by the school board last fall.

All Air Conditioned

The fireproof building will be constructed of brick and steel, and will be completely air conditioned. However, the classrooms and auditorium can not be air conditioned at the same time.

Canyon voters approved the construction of the new school last year when they voted approval of a $1 million sale of bonds, 493 to 264, to finance the construction.

350 Area Youths To Arrive Sunday For Music Camp

More than 350 area junior and senior high school musicians will arrive on the West Texas State College campus Sunday to register for the seventh annual West Texas Music Camp. Registration starts at 1 p.m.

Students will enroll for classes, choir, and will audition for one of the three camp bands. Planned are instruction in instruments, twirling, conducting, drum majoring, ensembles, voice, and other phases of musicianship.

Classes and rehearsals for the two weeks camp start Monday morning.

Students will follow a full day's schedule of band and choir rehearsals, sectional rehearsals, classes, and private lessons throughout the week, with recreational activities after 5 p.m. daily.

WT Satire Opens Thursday at BIT

A fake Renoir painting and an eccentric collector provide the key points in the satiric comedy, "Reclining Figure," which opens Thursday for a three-night run in the Branding Iron Theatre at West Texas State College.

Last production of the summer theatre season and last play to be given in the old BIT, "Reclining Figure" is directed by Robert L. Antrim. Curtain time each night is 8:15, and admission is 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students.

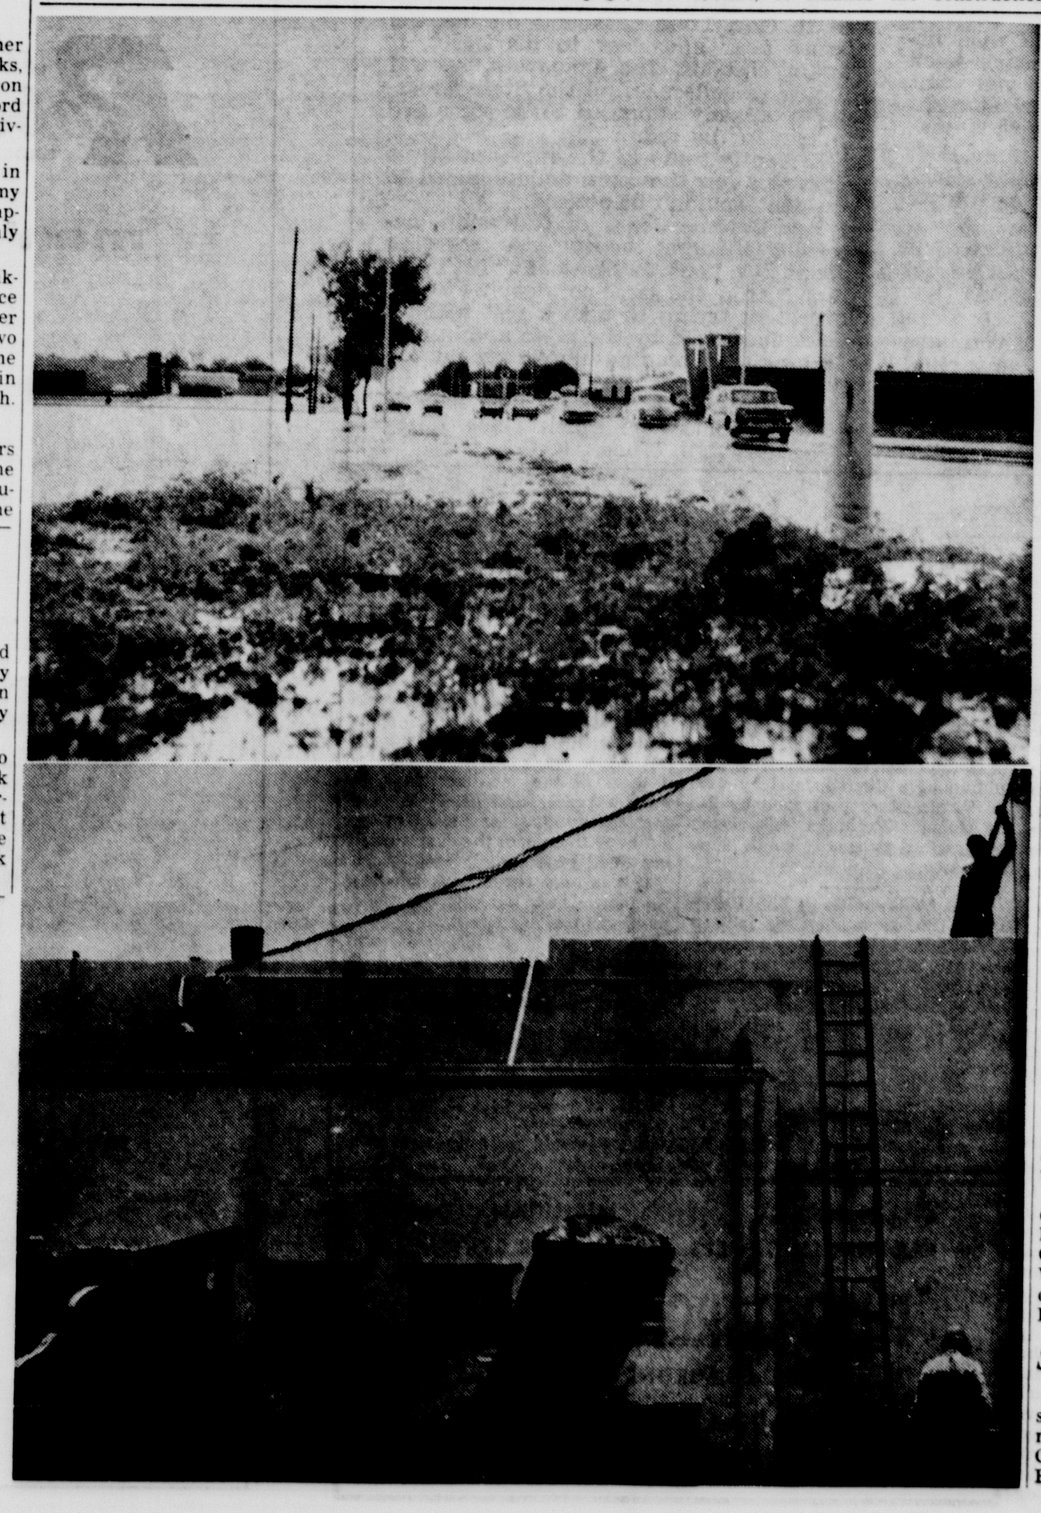
The story concerns the world of artists, art dealers, and collectors. Playwright Harry Kurnitz has written a play which received critical acclaim when it was first produced on Broadway in 1954.

Antrim plays the part of Lucas Edgerton, a millionaire who made his fortune from "Tingle," a soft drink with a lemon flavor. Romantic interest is provided by Jerry Ballew of Perryton, as Samuel Ellis, a young salesman, and Ann Smith of Dimmitt, as Cass Edgerton.

Others in the cast are Penny Cox of Amarillo, Morris Westberry of Dimmitt, Gary Wyatt of Dimmitt, Guy Yates of Amarillo, Mike Wheeler of Amarillo, Jo Beecher of Dimmitt, and Kim Williams of Plainview.

Swim Party Set

The 35 youths enrolled in t... summer program will have a ... ming party Thursday at ... Gym Lake Pool in Am... Bill Davis announce...



A small lake formed on Highway 87 last week as an average of three inches of rain and hail were dumped on the city during a severe storm last Wednesday. The storm, accompanied by strong winds, tore at Canyon in midafternoon, damaging already-impaired roofs in the area. The top photo shows Highway 87 minutes after the storm abated Wednesday, while the bottom picture shows a scene typical in the downtown sector this week. Roofing contractors have been busy throughout the city repairing damage, which one estimate set at close to $500,000. Wednesday's storm was the third major hail storm in two weeks to hit Canyon. In the downtown areas, most of the streets were running curb deep in water from the storm, and in the residental areas, some residents' yards were flooded because the streets were not able to handle the run-off of water.

A Show of Good Horse Sense

Now comes the Junior Chamber of Commerce hopping on the bandwagon by sponsoring a quarterhorse show at the college rodeo arena Saturday.

Not that being on the bandwagon is anything to scoff at; it's a paying proposition. And what pays for a civic organization like the Jaycees usually pays off for the town. We, therefore, urge that you support the show, the first of what is hoped will become an annual event for the city.

We understand this venture will be the first western-type show to get a start in Canyon. This makes the move even more commendable.

Not only do the Jaycees wish to begin a show which the residents of Canyon can look forward to each year, it appears they wish to retain some of the flavor and tradition of the old west.

Nothing quite captures that flavor and tradition like a quarterhorse show. The skills which brought the most fame and fortune to the old-time cowboy and his horse are evident in such a show as the Jaycees are sponsoring.

Skills such as are displayed in the rodeos held in almost every town in Texas are not the skills in which the everyday cowboy excelled.

We know several "real" cowboys down along the Gulf Coast, where a rodeo is held every few days it seems.

And these men, people who make their livings being cowboys, will stand around watching the quarterhorses showing their stuff at the reining and cutting events while the rest of us troop into the arena in our new, stiff levis to watch a rodeo.

A rodeo is more exciting, but you just can't beat a good cutting horse contest for showing the ability, agility, and plain horse sense of a horse. O.G.

Get Ready Now for School

If you're a wise parent you'll start getting ready in midsummer for the September opening of school.

There is lots to do — buy clothes, fit shoes—and if your child is entering the first grade, chances are you need a birth certificate copy.

School districts in Texas require that entering students be six years old before September 1. Otherwise they must wait until the following year.

The best means of proving your child's age and birth date is to have a certified copy of his birth certificate. In many areas of Texas, copies are available from local registrars of vital statistics in health departments or county court houses. You may also obtain a birth certificate copy from the Division of Vital Statistics of the Texas State Department of Health in Austin. To do so, you must send one dollar requesting a copy. Be sure to include the child's name, date and place of birth and the parent's name.

It is important that parents take care of this chore as early as possible. During August and September the Division of Vital Statistics is swamped with literally thousands of requests each week for birth certificate copies. If you want to be sure your child has his birth certificate when school starts, request it now.

Rough estimates place the number of upcoming first graders at about 250,000. That makes for a lot of birth certificate copies.

In addition to birth certificates, it would be wise to check with your school district regarding any vaccinations that may be required.

It would be a good idea — if you have not already done so — to get your child started on his series of three Salk polio shots before school starts. Also, a fourth shot or "booster" is generally recommended for added protection a minimum of one-year after the initial series.

Another smart idea that will pay off, is adjusting your child's schedule to approximate that of school time including bedtime, meals and especially waking time. (Amarillo Daily News)

What to Do? What to Do?

The Texas Legislature last week again showed that they didn't quite know what to do with Louisiana's Governor Earl Long.

Seems that some 15 to 20 of the state representatives wanted to invite the fast-moving, fast-talking governor to speak before the Legislature. This left 130 or so representatives who would have no part of it.

At the risk of being labeled conformist, we have to agree with the majority of the representatives. The Legislature has enough work to do in agreeing on a tax bill without getting into a hassle with Gov. Long.

Besides that, if the Legislature listened to Gov. Long cuss and discuss the issues near and dear to his heart, it would cost us, the taxpayers, several thousand dollars. And the State Treasury is already supposed to be some $90 million in the red.

Evidently some of the representatives figured a few thousand dollars added to the debt wouldn't be noticed.

Rep. Jerome Jones of Galveston, according to news reports, was worrying about Gov. Long. In his words, "Let's give him (Long) the same courtesy we would expect in trying to take a rest without being harrassed by the press and others. I think the reading public would appreciate it, too."

Well, not us Mr. Jones. We haven't enjoyed politics so much since Harry Truman was in office. (O.G.)

What Our Neighbors Say . . .

Scissor Snippings

Jimmie Gillentine in The Hereford Brand: H. A. Tuck, Brand news editor made his classification talk at the Rotary Club Monday and estimated that there are 921,600 chances to make a mistake in each 24 page paper we publish. He figured this by multiplying the 24 pages by the 8 columns on each page, by 20 inches to each column, times 30 characters in each line; this totals 921,600. He said he felt fairly hopeless until he remembered that a large percentage of the space was advertising, which cut the possibility for error down to 368,400 chances in each edition. Twice each week, however, steps it back up to 737,280 chances each week — which is still pretty heavy odds.

Ernest Joiner in The Ralls Banner: One of the livliest and most interesting church publications to come across my desk in "The Crucifier," published by the Episcopal Church of Our Savior, Pasco, Wash., by the pastor, Mr. Lester Kinsolving. This fellow comments on everything, from the stripper at Oak Harbor Lions Club meeting to a grinding indictment of the jury that fined a London columnist $22,000 for calling Liberace what a lot of people really think he is. Last week he was bemused to learn that Movie Producer Frank Capra will soon be filming the life of St. Paul, and has chosen for the title role, Frank Sinatra. Capra, he relates, justified his selection by pointing out that St. Paul was at one time a heel, too. He wound up by suggesting production of a Christmas story with the Virgin Mary protrayed by Zsa Zsa Gabor. Methinks "his rivverince' has an unusually cooth sense of humor.

Dave McReynolds in The Friona Star: Life sure does get tedious.

This year has really been a rough one for many farmers and with the almost everyday showers, fields are really looking rough.

This fact has been brought home to us by our efforts to begin a lawn.

Before the rains came, we fertilized and seeded grass and by the time we returned from our trip the yard looked as if nobody had lived in the house for about six months.

For the past couple of weeks we've spent most of our spare time hoeing the weeds down but last week we gave up—seems as if most of the fertilizer went toward a bigger and better crop of careless weeds—and began to use a mower to control the ever spreading weed problem.

It was only three days ago that we mowed, and already the weeds have jumped up again.

Fields are just like our yard, except that a tractor will bog down in most of them and hoe hands are priced like platinum.

What really worries many of us is whether or not this rain we've been getting is that moisture which the Plains missed for the past few years, or is this part of next year's allotment?

Sure would hate to use it all up at once.

What was Austin and its life like when O. Henry, the future master of the short story, lived there?

In the issues of the Austin Statesman during January, 1887 (O. Henry was then working in the Land Office), there were such news items as an account of four runaway teams on East Pecan street in one day with no injury; a fire in the room of a man who after "a night around", had gone to bed at 6 a.m., cause of the fire, which caused $450 damage, being surmised as an overturned lamp or a lighted cigar; and the acquittal of a man for killing a dog.

In one issue, the reader was told of the escape of a prisoner from the chain-gang, the breaking out of the "calaboose" by another and announcement of a meeting of the Austin Grays—(a drill unit of which O. Henry was a member).

Another item was, "The usual weekly dance at the insane asylum last night was attended by a number of legislators."

Also the public was advised that Fritz Hartkopf of the Opera House Club "will serve his customers with bear meat at lunch today."

The editor indignantly commented, "So far as the Statesman is aware, the Austin postoffice is the only one which keeps the doors of its main entrance locked more than two-thirds of the time. It is an inconvenience to the people which should be remedied."

Incidentally, the business enterprise of the paper is indicated by the fact that at the issue of January 2 carried an advertisement for Christmas presents. And the ad was on the front page.

O. Henry himself gives us a glimpse of Austin's appearance in his magazine, "Rolling Stone", August 25, 1894—(the governor at that time being James Stephen Hogg). The capitol grounds, O. Henry wrote, "are scarcely more than Hogg wallow prairie, and a wilderness of weeds, rubbish, holes and sunflower forests."

He refers also to a "wild waste of ugly, ponderous, dangerous, lopsided, creaking and groaning signs that hang over the sidewalks of Austin . . . . Oh, wicked and perverse generation, ye seek a sign and it shall be given you— on your own heads be the consequences."

It's impossible for a man to correct the proofs of his life.

Marketing quotas will apply to the 1960 wheat crop. According to public announcements the quotas carried by more than the ⅔ majority required. In Randall County, 319 wheat farmers voted. Some 268 votes were cast for quotas and 51 were against. The quotas carried by an 84% majority in the county.

Since the farmers agreed to enforce reduction of areas by imposing penalties on overseeded farms, the 1960 wheat crop will be supported at 75% of parity, or about the same as 1959.

We want to extend our thanks to the community committeemen and others that conducted the referendum in each community. No one can realize how long the day is when holding one of these referendums unless they have served before.

Hail continues to batter Randall County crops. To those who think farming is a bed of roses, we would recommend that they take a quick tour of the county. There are many fields that will not be harvested even though the farmer has invested his money in them this year.

We have received word that the Conservation Reserve part of the Soil Bank will be reopened for 1960. Applications for placing land in this program will be accepted starting August 24 and ending on September 10. The program will operate with about the same requirements as was used in 1959. However there are some major changes. We list these changes as follows:

(1) Only about five million acres will be accepted, compared to thirteen million in 1959.

(2) The county committee will set rates on the land offered instead of the whole farm as in 1959.

(3) Farmers must underbid the rate set by the county committee. Otherwise the application will not be considered.

(4) The farmers underbidding their rate the highest percentage will have first priority.

(5) A maximum limitation of 25% of the cropland in each community and the county will be accepted. This includes cropland presently in the program.

(6) Land that has changed ownership since December 31, 1956, will not be accepted.

A lot of interest has been shown in the program. Because of the decreased acreage goal and the other limitations referred to above, it now appears that all land offerred cannot be accepted. We now have enough information on the program to be able to discuss it, and ask that any farmer interested drop by the office. We want to emphasize, however, that we cannot take applications until August 24.

Taylor-Sachse Vows Solemnized July 25 in First Baptist Church

Nuptial vows were solemnized July 25 at 7:30 p.m. for Helen Taylor of Canyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earsel E. Taylor of Friona, and Billy Joe Sachse, grandson of Mrs. F. M. Sachse of Quitaque.

Dr. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, site of the ceremony, read the double ring ceremony.

Centering the satin draped choir rail was a tall white Grecian pedestal holding a white urn filled with large white gladioli. Flanking the center pedestal were tall seven bracht candelabra holding pale pink tapers. Seven bracht candelabra and tall floor baskets filled with gladiolo were used on each side of the central arrangement. Green palms of jade foliage were spaced at graduated heights in the choir loft to complete the floral setting.

Traditional Music Used

Mrs. Dick Dawdy, organist, and W. C. Knighton, soloist, presented traditional wedding selections.

Mrs. T. A. Williams of Friona, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a sheath of imported powder pink cotton with lace mitts and overskirt. Her head piece was powder pink velvet bandeaux. She carried a cluster of pale pink carnations accented with natural English ivy.

J. W. Nable of Amarillo was best man.

Sharing the ushering duties were Ray Stephenson of Amarillo, Charlie Brown of Claude, Charles Peckenpaugh and LeRoy Wesley of Canyon.

Given By Father

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length gown of Alecon lace styled with a Basque bodice, Sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves of Alecon lace. Panels of tulle extended to the bottom of the skirt of Alecon lace.

Her veil was a shoulder length queens crown of Alecon lace arrangement of white roses accented with stephanotis and streamers of white satin tied with love knots.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece rose beige dress with matching accessories and a corsage of peach glamelias. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy silk with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Reception Follows

A reception followed in Fellowship Hall. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Lloyd Buchanan, Mrs. Roy Franklin, Mrs. Clayton Taylor, Chloe Ann Black, Mrs. Glenn Taylor and Mrs. Ralph Taylor.

For the wedding trip to Colorado, the bride chose a pink brocade sheath with white accessories.

A graduate of Friona High School, the bride is employed by Leona's Beauty Shop in Canyon. The bridegroom is an employee at Pantex. He is a graduate of Quitaque High School and has attended West Texas State College.

Dr. William A. Cooper Awarded Grant To Conduct Heart Research

A grant to conduct heart research on the West Texas State College campus has been awarded to Dr. William A. Cooper by the National Heart Institute of the National Institutes of Health.

The grant is for 1959-60, with recommendations for extension for an additional year. The National Institutes of Health is a branch of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Dr. Cooper, associate professor of biology, will conduct research on the effect of nutrition on congenital heart abnormalities. Specifically, he will investigate the effects of diets deficient in the trace vitamin biotin and another growth vitamin, pantothenic acid, on the development of the heart.

The grant is for $8,910 a year and will be administered through West Texas State. It was to have begun June 1, but Dr. Cooper hopes to delay the beginning of the grant period until Sept. 1, because he is teaching full-time this summer.

Dr. Cooper, who came to WT in 1957, has previously conducted research on the effects of biotin deficient diets. At Texas A&M, where he earned his doctorate, he found that an insufficient amount of biotin in mother rats' diets produced harmful effects on offspring. These were smaller and weaker than normal baby rats.

"The weak and undeveloped rats showed certain heart abnormalities," Dr. Cooper said. "The auricles were thin-walled and the ventricles had degenerated cells and large areas were eroded away, particularly in the right ventricle. This ventricle was often only three or four layers thick, while in a normal rat heart, the right ventricle is usually more than 12 cell layers thick."

Biotin is normally supplied in the human diet by egg yolk, tomatoes, yeast, cane molasses, and many other foods. It can be bought in purefied form and can be stored in small amounts. A person's needs, however, are minute, with the human body requiring only about one-thousandth as much biotin as other vitamins.

In Dr. Cooper's experiments, a group of female rats will be made deficient in biotin by eating a purefied diet containing raw egg white. A substance in egg white combines with the vitamin and prevents it from being absorbed from the intestines, Dr. Cooped said. The longer the animals are fed this diet, the more depleted in biotin they become.

Offspring of the mother rats will be studied for effects of the lack of both biotin and pantothenic acid. Both of them are "B" vitamins and are among the growth vitamins.

"Previous work has shown that a deficiency of these vitamins has caused hearts that had not developed correctly or had degenerated, and in the experiments at WT, we hope to show exactly why this occurs," Dr. Cooper said.

For his research, Dr. Cooper will set up a room in the science building and will hire some students as laboratory technicians, he said. Some equipment including a rat battery for 60 rats, an oscilloscope for electrocardiograms, and a photomicrographic camera, will be obtained.

Dr. Cooper earned B. S. and M. S. degrees at North Texas State College and his Ph. D. at Texas A&M. He was a research associate at Texas A&M for the Research Foundation.

He and his research director, Dr. S. O. Brown, conducted research on biotin supported from grants by the National Institutes of Health and the Surgeon General's Office. Dr. Cooper has written a number of articles reporting on the findings for a number of national scientific journals.

He is a member of the Society of the Sigma Chi, a national research fraternity, and is a fellow of the Texas Academy of Science.

MRS. BILL G. MOORE

Earleen Plank, Bill G. Moore Wed In Ceremony at Hereford Church

The First Methodist Church of Hereford was the scene of the wedding of Earleen Plank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Plank, and Bill G. Moore, son of Cyrus C. Moore and the late Mrs. Moore of Dalhart.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Plank of Canyon.

Rev. Herschel L. Thurston, pastor, read the double ring ceremony. He is a former pastor of the First Methodist Church of Canyon.

The sanctuary was decorated with bridal stands of emerald palm foliage, accented with arrangements of white stock and pale pink carnations and flanked by tall spiral candelabra holding white wedding tapers. Tall floor standards filled with white stock and pale pink carnations completed the floral setting at the immediate alter, which was centered by a satin covered kneeling bench. The bridal aisle was laid with a white cloth and marked by candelabra tied with ivy and white stock.

Mrs. Bill Stanford, organist, presented traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. H. R. Fulton Jr. of Canyon, soloist, who sang "O Promise Me" and "Thine Alone" preceding the ceremony, and Malotte's arrangement of "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

Candles were lighted by Craig Griffin, cousin of the bride, and Dick Plank, the bride's brother.

Leabelle Sluder of Dalhart was maid of honor. She wore mauve pink taffeta frock fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt. The bodice featured a low scoop neckline and she wore short mitts of matching lace. Her headpiece, made of taffeta leaves, held a short circular veil and she carried a cascade arrangement of pale pink glamelias accented with natural ivy.

D. C. Moore of Boulder, Colo., attended his brother as best man. Ushering were Allen Moore of Arvada, Colo., Jim Rose of Waco, Joe Allender of Dalhart, and Pete Plank of Hereford, brother of the bride.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length model of white taffeta and imported French lace. The fitted bodice was designed with a bateau neckline outlined in a scalloped lace motif as were the brief sleeves. The lace also extended from a double fold of taffeta at the hemline of the full hooped skirt. Her short lace mitts were fastened with pearl buttons taken from the wedding dress of her great-grandmother, and her short veil of silk illusion fell from a headpiece of white taffeta and lace leaves.

The bride wore a gold and pearl necklace worn by her mother at her wedding and carried a cascade arrangement of white gardenias tied with stephanotis and white satin streamers, topping a white Bible, the gift of a great aunt when the bride graduated from high school.

Mrs. E. E. Plank Sr. of Canyon, grandmother of the bride, chose a rose beige dress of chantilly lace for the wedding. Her accessories were matching in color and her corsage was pink elfe dosebuds. Mrs. Earl Plank, the bride's mother, wore a mauve pink lace sheath over taffeta with hat of matching lace. She wore a corsage of white gardenias and pink rosebuds. Mrs. Hugh Rose of Dalhart, sister of the bridegroom, wore a sheath dress of blue Italian lace over matching crepe with bone accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Following the wedding the bride's parents hosted a reception honoring the couple at their country home. The reception rooms were decorated with matching arrangements of white stock and pale pink carnations. The bride's table was laid with a white imported linen and lace cloth centered with a crystal epergne filled with white stock and butterfly roses. Silver candelabra held tall white tapers and a garland of similax encircled ahe silver punch bowl.

Presiding at the table were Mrs. Jerry Swearingen of Canyon, Mrs. George Sinder of Borger and Mrs. Jim Hadaway of Canyon. Securing names for the bride's book were Mrs. David Harmon of Dallas and Mrs. Pat Kerr of Roswell, N. M.

Others assisting were Mrs. John Plank of Canyon, Esther Plank of Lanoka Harbor, N. J., Mrs. W. J. Plank of Canyon, Mrs. David Plank of Des Moines, Mrs. Ed Dreiss of Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., Mrs. Evelyn Winget of Harlingen and Mrs. C. R. Winget.

When the couple left on a honeymoon trip to points in Colorado, the bride traveled in a beige ensemble with embroidered linen jacket. Her accessories were in bone and she wore a corsage of white gardenias. Upon their return they will be at home on a farm near Dalhart.

Mrs. Moore is a graduate of Hereford High School. She attended Texas Tech at Lubbock, where she was a member of Delta Gamma social sorority. She received her degree from West Texas State College, where she was a member of Kappa Omicron Pi, honorary home economics fraternity, and the Home Economics Club. She was elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." For the past year, she has served as home demonstration agent for Dallam County.

Moore is a graduate of Dalhart High School and served four years in the United States Marines. He is now a farmer-stockman in Dallam County.

Attending from Canyon were Mrs. Jerry Swearingen, Mrs. Jim Hadaway, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Plank, Mr. and Mrs. John Plank and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fulton Sr., Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fulton Jr. and family, Gladys Cox, Elizabeth Cox and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Noel.

A man may have an iron will, but some lawyer will break it.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hays of Anchorage, Alaska are visiting in the home of her sister, Mrs. Hosea Foster.

Mrs. Beulah Kirley of Abilene and her grandchildren from Denver, Colo., visited in the home of her sister, Mrs. Viola Russell recently.

WATER RIGHTS

By Representative Walter Rogers 18th Congressional District

The problem of water rights has long plagued mankind and apparently will continue to do so. The issue: "Who has control over the water in this country, the federal government or the state governments."

Attempts will be made to resolve this question during this session of Congress. It is another prime example of the federal government, by devious means and methods, undertaking to override state laws and assume full control of the water in the states insofar as the federal government wants to use or employ it. In other words, the federal government takes the position that the citizens of this country as between each other and the staes in which they live, are subject to the provision of state water laws. But the federal government is wholly and completely exempt from compliance with any state laws, rules or regulations governing the search for water, the production thereof, and the use to which it is to be put.

Court Decisions

The problem has been developing over a period of several years, but it is only in recent years that the Supreme Court has gone far afield in subjecting the water and water courses to a "dominant servitude" invested in the federal government. In 1940, the court held that the navigability of a stream for purposes of federal control does not depend solely upon natural and ordinary conditions of a river, such as volume of water, regularity of flow, etc., but the availability of the river for navagation if reasonable improvements are made, regardless of wheather or not such improvements are constructed or utilized. If a substantial part of a stream can be made navigable, by construction of improvements to make it navigable, it is to be considered navigable in the first instance and subject to the control of the federal government, even though no work is ever done thereon.

In 1955, the court held that even though certain federal laws subject the waters on and under public lands of the federal government to state water laws, the United States government could simply withdraw the lands from the public land category, call them "reserve lands," and thereby be fully and completely exempt from any state laws concerning the waters or any rights acquired by individuals from the states.

It was later held in another case that a military installation of the federal government was not required to comply in any respect with the water laws in the state in which the installation was located.

A Powerful Weapon

There are many other cases that could be cited on this subject, but I hope that these will point up the great danger that lies in this trend. Since the scarcity of water in the western states places the people in those states in a position of complete dependence upon the ability to obtain water, the control of water is an all-powerful weapon. People of these states could be completely overwhelmed and dominated by the federal government. If such powers fall into the hands of unscrupulous public officials, and they easily could, it would take many years to recover from the damage which could be done.

Although there were no federal public lands in Texas originally, the federal government has acquired much property in recent years, and can acquire such additional amounts as it desires simply by condemnation procedures. Hence, every state of the Union is a potential victim of possible complete servitude to the federal government.

This information is gathered together for the purpose of showing the trends toward centralization of the government in all facets of the economy. Unless these trends can be successfully checked it will be only a short time before state governments will be governments in name only and wholly without power.

The peoples living in the less densely populated areas of this country will be subject to the rule and control of the thickly populated metropolitan sections of this country. This will not meet with the approval of the people in the 18th Congressional District of Texas or any other group of independent thinking free Americans.

Adjournment

Everyone seems to be making a guess about adjournment of the Congress. Frankly, I feel that much would have been accomplished had we adjourned by July 15. This was not possible because of the controversy surrounding the "labor reform bill." It appears that this bill has now been agreed upon by the House Committee and will be before the Congress within the next several days. This will be a hotly contested matter and may hold Congress up for as long as two additional weeks. Added to this is the time that will be required if a civil rights bill is debated. This could hold the Congress in session until September 15; however, most of the guessers think that we will be out by Labor Day, and I certainly hope so.

Palo Duro Rusk Elects Officers

Officers were elected when the Palo Duro Rusk Club met July 14 in the home of Mrs. Edd Reynolds.

Mrs. Earl Reynolds was elected president. Other officers are Mrs. Althea Douglas, vice-president; Mrs. C. V. Wilkinson, secretary-treasury; Mrs. Doug Marshall, council delegate; and Mrs. Clem Dugan, reporter.

Red and white were adopted as the club colors.

Hat making, tailoring and crafts were some proposed studies for the 1960 program of work.

Eight members and one guest, Mrs. A. E. Little of Houston, answered roll.

Next meeting will be Sept. 8 in the home of Mrs. E. W. Glenn.

GUARDIAN

Everyone is born with a conscience — a sort of built-in watch dog, so heed its advice.

Rainbows Honor Gatesville Adviser

A picnic supper was held July 18 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lyles in honor of Sue Fairchild of Gatesville, grand worthy advisor of Grand Assembly of Texas Order Of Rainbow for girls and other grand officers.

Miss Fairchild was on a two-week tour through the Panhandle. She will tour the state for Rainbows until January, when she returns to school.

The local order and the grand officers attended services at the First Methodist Church Sunday and afterwards lunched at the Colonial Grill in Amarillo.

Miss Fairchild was honored by the Happy Rainbow Girls Monday night and the Canyon group were guests at the event.

Officers here Saturday and Sunday were Miss Fairchild, Mary Walden of Seminole, Roberta Fuqua of Sweetwater, Cynthia Owens of Fabens, Kathy Hopkins of Amarillo, Martha Jones of Baytown, Pat Flaherty of Happy, Kristi Brown of Pampa, Janet Knowles of El Paso, Linda Barnes of Levelland, Vicky Hamilton of Tahoka, Barbara Croxton of Odessa, Virginia Patton of Friona, Janie Edwards of Lubbock, Peggy Patterson of Nacona, Mrs. Reva McNeill of Amarillo, Mrs. Ione Turner of Brownfield, Mrs. Bob Applewhite, Mrs. Eunice Speir of Borger and Mrs. Willa Elliott of Happy.

Resolutions to reform come from those who have been detected.

One-key control: only Chevy in its field has done away with fumbling for two or three keys. The same key unlocks the door, starts the engine, opens the glove box and trunk.

WHY DO WITHOUT THIS CONVENIENT LITTLE TOUCH... LET ALONE
THESE BIG CHEVY VIRTUES!

BIGGER BRAKES
Not only bigger, but built with bonded linings for up to 66% longer life. Just to prove what's what, Chevy outstopped both of the "other two" in a NASCAR*-conducted test of repeated stops from highway speeds.
*National Association for Stock Car Advancement and Research

GREATER ROOMINESS
Official dimensions reported to the Automobile Manufacturers Association make this point abundantly clear. For example, Chevy's front seat room is up to 5.9 inches wider than in comparable cars. And Chevy even offers more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars!

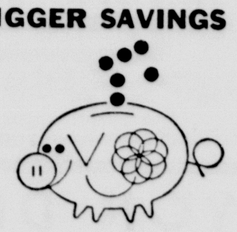
MOST ADVANCED ENGINES
We'll let SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED talk about Chevy's standard passenger car and Corvette V8's: "Indeed, this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price." And every motor magazine concurs! There are eight V8's to pick from—the widest choice in Chevy's field.

FRESH STYLING
POPULAR SCIENCE magazine's experts took one look and said, "In its price class, Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling."

HIGHER TRADE-IN
N.A.D.A.* Guide Books carry the proof of Chevy's extra trade-in value. They show that Chevrolet used car prices last year averaged up to a solid $128 higher than comparable models of the other two cars in Chevy's field.
*National Automobile Dealers Association

FULL COIL RIDE
You've almost got to find a really rocky road to show off Chevy's easygoing ride to full advantage. MOTOR TREND magazine gives you an idea, though: ". . . the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class."

BIGGER SAVINGS



Two Chevrolets packing our pennypinching 6 with Powerglide delivered a whopping 22.38 mpg in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, winning the first two places in their class and walking away with top honors among all full-size cars. How can you argue with a figure like that?

HERE AT LAST - - THE STORY OF WEST TEXAS STATE COLLEGE
1909 - 1959
"MORE THAN BRICK AND MORTAR" — By Dr. J. A. Hill
Pre-Publication Price until September 26
$5.95

Rarely is history written by one who was an eye-witness to its making; even more rarely is history written by one who actually participated in the making of it. But rarest of all is that happy combination in which the one who made the history not only does later write it, but is also qualified as an historian . . . Yet here in this history of the first half-century's development of West Texas State College is found that rarest of all combinations.

—James P. Cornette, President

Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Brasher and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Clark, vacationed in New Mexico and Colorado last week.

A 100-year-old woman is reported to have said she "didn't really intend to live that long." What a wonderful philosophy? One gets the feeling that she has stayed so interested in other things and people that she hasn't given much thought to age either way.

An 80-year-old, auhor of "Cheaper by the Dozen", who is a registered engineer, scoffs at the suggestion she give up lecturing on industrial efficiency and writing books. She says age is "strictly a mental attitude."

And we read recently of a great grandmother now in her 70's who is making a cross-country hike of 5,000 miles. She says her numerous children and grandchildren "did everything they could to talk me out of it." But she's having the time of her life.

For people who are lucky enough to stay healthy, these women are a real inspiration. Often we give in to conventional thinking and retire from activities we really enjoy, just because of what others might think.

Many so-called oldsters win admiration from those around them by keeping a bright interest in the world and a plucky outlook on life. While their activities are not as spectacular as those of the three women mentioned, they contribute as much or more by example to the American tradition of hardihood and independence.

"When I get old?" we heard a middle-aged woman say at a coffee the other morning. "Oh, I'm not going to get old." Even if she loses that spirit later, at least she has a good start on the right philosophy. The quickest way to become old in spirit is surely by allowing oneself to be put on the shelf prematurely.

Top Production Records Set by Local Holsteins

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has announced the completion of outstanding official production records by registered Holstein cows owned by Richmond Hales and Louis G. Hinders.

Hales' Lilacvalley Prince Kitty 3733430 produced 13,553 pounds of milk and 476 pounds of butterfat in 365 days on twice-daily milking as a five-year-old.

Hinders' Tierra Blanca Imperial Molly 3724896 produced 14,922 pounds of milk and 553 pounds of butterfat in 309 days on twice-daily milking as a six-year-old.

Texas A&M College, working in cooperation with the national Holstein organization, supervised the weighing and testing of production as a part of the Herd Improvement Registry program.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

The Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District was organized by local farmers November 26,, 1954. The district now has 193 cooperators, of whom 58 have basic conservation plans.

The district is governed by a board consisting of J. W. Spencer, chairman; C. V. Conatser, vice-chairman; R. C. Sampson, Jr., secretary; Frank Begert, member; and Marshall Rockwell,Jr., member.

Technical assistance is provided by the Soil Conservation Service. Joe Batson is in charge. Other SCS men working with the district include Marvin Beights, John Burkett, Bill Chance, and O. B. Russell.
